

Entering Cull Sales (Weichman, Heinhold, etc.)

Cull Sales typically have no carcass detail associated with them and can be done through a movement or a hand entered Packer Sale. There are decisions to be made by the customer on how they want to handle these types of sales. Doing them as a Movement causing them to only show on movement based reports. Doing them via Packer Sales causes them to show up on all sales and movement based reports.

Other variables include event code. Some want them as Market Sales, other Sub-Standard Sales, and others do not want them associated with Market Sales at all. The options here are very wide and varied. Let us know how and where you want these types of sales to show up and Customer Service can guide you.
